

Company Name: Sisterspeaks Global Limited

Short Company Description: A for-profit enterprise registered company in Kenya to increase networking capacities for women through curated themed events and markets to promote and encourage women entrepreneurship and empowerment. SisterSpeaks means “Dada Ongea” in Swahili to encourage women to develop a voice to be heard. However, the vulnerable and marginalized do not have access to our events and work and that’s why we founded #Heels4Pads initiative to empower them through mentorship and menstrual education

Heels4Pads is a CSR initiative of Sisterspeaks but since it has taken a life of its own and registered as a foundation in Kenya and trademarked. The initiative’s aims to raise awareness on period poverty by leveraging the latent power of technology to create a sustainable model to amplify and raise awareness on menstrual inequality in Kenya. The initiative employs a novel barter trade system for social good to bridge access to menstrual health, education and products and dispel period stigma aligned to UN SDG 5 & 6 gender equality for all & WASH
